

balanced planet yoga online membership portal

more ways to meet us on the mat

our online membership platform is making a move to a self-hosted platform, allowing us to control the content, its delivery to you, + add more features to make connecting + learning even easier.

About Us

At the start of the 2020 pandemic, we found ourselves, luckily, already in the process of creating an online library tailored for our beloved community members who were on the move or unable to visit the studio. What began as a solution to stay connected before the lockdown quickly blossomed into a vital lifeline. Our online community fostered a sense of unity and support during those uncertain times. Today, as circumstances evolve and our needs shift, we stand poised to embark on an exciting new chapter in our online journey. Join us as we redefine and elevate our digital presence, offering a fresh array of transformative experiences designed to nourish mind, body, + soul wherever life may take you.
